Dealing With Difference: Opening Dialogue about Lesbian, Gay & Straight Issues

As schools work to reduce bullying and create safer climates for all, many educators are increasingly concerned about discrimination and harassment leveled against LGBT students. This video and print package is designed to foster healthy dialogue amongst students in your classroom around LGBT issues while informing everyone of the serious effects anti-LGBT harassment and bullying can have on all students. A mixture of dramatic vignettes and real teen discussion will encourage your students to look at their own behavior as well as that of their peers. With over 80% of lesbian and gay youth reporting verbal, sexual or physical harassment in schools, this video promises to be a useful tool in creating a safe and affirming school environment for all.

2003; 35-minute video and 82-page teacher resource book; ~~$139.95~~ $99.95

The GLSEN Lunchbox: A Comprehensive Training Program for Ending Anti-Gay Bias in Schools

This lunchbox is not like the one you carried off to school years ago. Though packaged in an actual lunchbox, it offers a very different kind of nourishment. The GLSEN Lunchbox is a comprehensive training program that offers a menu of exercises and activities aimed at providing educators with the background knowledge, skills and tools necessary to build awareness of LGBT issues and develop more inclusive school environments. The training program is aimed at teachers, guidance staff, and administrators in K-12 schools, but is also appropriate for professionals and family/community members who have a vested interest in youth safety.

2000; 25 training exercises, 100 page resource binder and assorted merchandise; ~~$129.95~~ $79.95
